

The Secret Agenda Of Globalism

Doug Plumb,
CAP Candidate 2008 Toronto Centre

“While you were sleeping
They came and took it all away
The lanes and the meadows
The places where you used to play

It was an inside job
By the well-connected
Your little protest
Summarily rejected.....”
-Don Henley/Mike Campbell “Inside Job”

Preface

“Pay no attention to the man behind the curtain” -The Wizard of Oz

This booklet is all about the Security & Prosperity Partnership Agreement (otherwise known as the North American Union or the Public Private Partnership between USA, Canada & Mexico). This is a part of the Sustainable Development, Agenda 21 or The New World Order agenda that Bush Sr. talked about in the nineties during the previous Iraq war.

These agendas are all about transforming our society to the Third Way, New Soviet and Communitarian legal system. The Third Way is an Ownership society where everything is owned by central powers. Individualism and property rights will become things of the past and unaccountable, autocratic rulers will govern society with an iron-fisted police state. This is all being set up in secret and no one that only views or reads mainstream/corporate media knows anything about it.

To understand how and why things work the way they do, one must understand the mechanics of money creation and who benefits from and controls money.

“What pleases me most is that sustainable development is on almost everybody's agenda now.” - Maurice Strong

Some Critical Questions:

- Why was the electric car taken off the market if we are running out of oil and the world economy is in such danger?
- Why was the electric car taken off the market if man-made global warming is a real threat and we are facing eminent peril? Don't the oil executives and automotive CEO's have families too?
- Why would Usama bin Laden attack the USA on 9/11? Does the official explanation for a motive even make sense?
- Where are all the terrorists that we need protection from?
- If the war on terrorism is real, why is the US and Mexico border being left open?
- Why does the government allow so many Moslem's into the country if they are such a threat?
- Why does the government wish to restrict access to vitamin supplements through Codex Alimentarius?
- Who will you vote for? The Rockefeller Democrats, the Rockefeller Republicans?
- Whose security and prosperity is to be protected with the Security and Prosperity Partnership Agreement?
- If over population and a "sustainable" environment are concerns of the powers-that-be then why are so many countries having their earth salted with Depleted Uranium in all of our wars - a weapon so terrible that Hitler never used it? Depleted Uranium has a half life of 4.5 billion years. The Pentagon has declared a news moratorium on D.U. after reports of its effects entered mainstream media after the first Iraq invasion. D.U. is a horrific weapon that does permanent damage to countries according to Dr. Doug Rokke, who was appointed by General Schwartzkopf to write the D.U. safety manual for the first Iraq war in 1990.

- What is going to be done with police services once everyone has the chip? Once everyone has the chip there will be no need for police.
- Why is it that things never change while we are lead to believe we live in a democracy? Wars, debt, poverty, G.M. foods, fluorinated water, among other things will always be with us. Who does parliament and congress really work for?
- Will you be getting the chip?

Introduction

-- Justice Felix Frankfurter, U.S. Supreme Court.

Government used to be run by the people and the people took their elected representatives to task when they did not perform. They would run them out of office or worse.

Lately, government corruption has become the NORM as the government has attempted and, seemingly, succeeded in a role-reversal with the people. Civil servants are now called authorities. Should the government run the people? No, the people should run the government and it's time for people to wake up to their democratic responsibilities.

The North American Union is an incredible fraud being perpetuated on the populations of the USA & Canada as well as possibly Mexico (Mexico is completely corrupt to begin with). The media-stated motivations for this union are not the real motivations of course. This union is not just for the reasons stated of making our borders more transparent, increasing security and for counting jelly beans. The real agenda is much bigger and is completely secret to those that only watch or read mainstream media.

Power is being centralized and powerful people have become unaccountable. Trillions of dollars have vanished from the Pentagon since Bush was "elected" with no one being held accountable and no hearings.

Thomas Jefferson once said:

"If a nation expects to be ignorant and free, it expects what never was and never will be."

Mainstream/corporate controlled media, books and education are keeping people ignorant and believing in a world such as that depicted in Plato's Cave — an allegorical story contained in the philosophical work "The Republic Of Plato" that illustrates a population completely misled and afraid of truth when it finally emerges. In Plato's Cave, the real action takes place with characters in front of a fire. However, the population is led to believe that the events are taking place as shadows cast on the wall from the fire. They live out their lives watching the shadows. Informing life-long observers of shadows that what they have been observing is an illusion leads to some accepting the new reality and to others turning away in fear to continue observing only shadows.

Clarity of vision and understanding results when one turns away from the shadows and observes the real events. Events and consequences are understood with far greater clarity and understanding than that of even the most studious observers of the shadows.

John Adams once said:

"All of the perplexities, confusion and distress in America arises, not from the defects of the Constitution or Confederation, not from want of honor or virtue, so much as from downright ignorance of the nature of coin, credit and circulation"

If you are studied in economics and are knowledgeable about fractional reserve banking, I hope that you will take the time to read this. Economics as taught in school explains how economics works today, not how it could work if some simple, fundamental changes would be made. The mechanics of fractional-reserve banking are illustrated in Appendix A. Nothing stated here contradicts what is stated in standard textbooks.

Recently, a few books have been written on the subject of economics and money. The Creature From Jekyll Island by G. Edward Griffin and, more recently, Web Of Debt by Ellen Brown explain how economics and banking work with governments to serve an elite class. The Creature From Jekyll Island is a well known book. Although many people have not read it, most have heard of it. There are many books and essays on the subject (most notably, an essay by Alan Greenspan in the 1960's entitled Gold & Economic Freedom).

Free online videos also explain the mechanics of money in society. Many people's favorite is called "Money As Debt" by Paul Grignon because anyone can appreciate this 47 minute cartoon illustration. It cuts to the nature of a basic deception very effectively. You can find it by searching for the key phrase "Money As Debt Video". It can be viewed for free on Google Video.

The Science of Money Creation

"Banking was conceived in iniquity and was born in sin. The Bankers own the earth. Take it away from them, but leave them the power to create deposits, and with the flick of the pen they will create enough deposits to buy it back again. However, take it away from them, and all the great fortunes like mine will disappear and they ought to disappear, for this would be a happier and better world to live in. But, if you wish to remain the slaves of Bankers and pay the cost of your own slavery, let them continue to create deposits." --Sir Josiah Stamp

An understanding of politics and economics must begin with an understanding of who actually governs our society. To truly understand how government works, one must first understand how a dollar is created because we are governed by the dollar just as our governments are.

A dollar is created only when it is created for the purpose of a loan at a bank. Banks create fiat money under a scheme known as fractional-reserve banking. Fiat money is money that represents wealth rather than actual wealth, as in the case of gold or silver coins. Fractional-reserve banking allows the actual creation of money for lending at low interest rates. Nearly all of the currency in circulation exists there because it was borrowed from a bank. Therefore, all currency in circulation is, in effect, being rented from private banks.

The science of money creation is a carefully guarded secret and few people understand that most of our money (around 97 %) is being rented from private bankers and not created by government in Canada. In the United States, 100 % of the paper currency and electronic money in circulation is collecting interest for private banks.

The idea of private banks issuing currency under a fractional-reserve scheme has advantages (such as low interest rates) allowing ordinary people to own property. The problem with fractional-reserve banking is that, under the current scheme, private banks lend money to government and collect fortunes from interest funded by the income tax.

Under the current scheme of government (i.e. borrowing from private bankers), the banks provide no capital, incur no risk, nor do they expend any effort for the service of creating loaned money for governments to borrow.

Money is based on the good faith of a country, its people and their willingness to work for it, not some commodity such as gold or silver. There is no reason why a government should rent its money from private individuals when the money itself is guaranteed by the country. Money itself consists of worthless figures on a piece of paper. It is only worth something because it is based on the fact that people are willing to work for it.

Bankers create currency because of the authority that is granted to them to create it but it is the nation and its people that bear the burden of validating the currency by earning it and when they lose real wealth when the currency loses value. The value of money that makes it worth more than just figures on a piece of paper is provided by the working public, not the banks. This added value is called seigniorage and the banks acquire all of the seigniorage of our money.

Bankers collect massive interest from our country's national debt. Politicians may borrow as much as they want from the banks. There is no path to responsibility under our current monetary system. Banks and the banker-controlled politicians play while the tax-paying public pays.

The money collected through the income tax pays the interest on these loans and funds the tax-free foundations, think tanks and focus groups that manage society by controlling culture, education and the media and by advising the governments they steer into power. University professors depend on tax free foundations for research grant money. This is how the banks control education and the intelligentsia (the intellectual elite of society).

The Council on Foreign Relations, Ford Foundation, Rockefeller Foundation, Planned Parenthood, Tavistock, Rand, and the Royal Institute of International Affairs is a small sampling of organizations and NGO's that most people have heard of that comprise the establishment. Many well known journalists attend the Council on Foreign Relations meetings and are sworn to secrecy. Some of these people include or have included Pamela Wallin, Paula Zahn, Barbara Walters, Lesley Stahl, Dian Sawyer, Tom Bowkaw as well as most other famous mainstream media figures from the past as well as present. They can be trusted to keep secrets and maintain myths.

The Canadian Council of Chief Executives is an example of a Canadian government advisory organization.

These tax-free foundations are never audited and do not answer to the public in any way. Their business can be conducted in secret as they formulate policy and direction for governments. This is how banks manage governments.

Politicians are told to say that allowing governments to create money to lend to themselves would cause inflation. The idea that a national bank that lends government money causes inflation is an automatic, preprogrammed response by politicians, yet, it is ridiculous and cannot stand up to simple logic.

If governments were financed by their own banks, the elected government would manage the economy for the benefit of the people rather than leaving this task to the self interest of the financial elite. There would be no huge debt bubble and no massive amounts of tax collected as interest on these growing debts. Debt from loans would be paid off quickly.

Government-created money doesn't cause inflation any more than private bank created money does provided the loan gets paid back. Governments can lend themselves money at almost zero interest. This is how Canada dug itself out of the hole it created by getting into World War II.

When it is in control of the money supply, the government is able to inject a certain amount of money in the form of grants to control the supply of money in the economy and facilitate economic growth. This model grants “free” money rather than forcing borrowed money, permits infrastructure to be created in an expanding economy and, together with taxes, controls the supply of currency and, thus, maintains its demand and controls inflation.

Banking is much more mysterious than sophisticated and suitable for mediocre minds according to John Kenneth Galbraith in his book Money: Whence It Came; Where It Went. The beginning of Ch. 3 in this book explains that the United States is under the control of only a handful of men.

If the governments used their own national banks, they could borrow money at only the cost of administering the loan - at about one percent interest. Loans would get paid off quickly instead of developing into a ballooning national debt with high compounded interest.

This is why the establishment does not want large numbers of people understanding how money is created. Understanding how money is created is the key to putting major news stories into correct context and being able to see the "big picture." The big picture isn't pretty for the average, or what many people consider as wealthy people, and the establishment does not want you to think so that you can be lead into becoming much more efficient by doing more for a lot less.

The Politics of Money Creation

"It is well enough that people of the nation do not understand our banking and monetary system, for if they did, I believe there would be a revolution before tomorrow morning"

--Henry Ford

People often describe an entity known as the establishment. This section is about that entity.

There is an old saying: shit flows downhill. If the absolute power that runs our society is corrupt by nature, it would follow that institutions that support this corruption must, in some ways, be corrupt themselves. Imagine a cottage build on a swamp. In a short time, the walls and floors would necessarily become crooked to support a structure on a foundation that is slowly sinking in mud. This seems to explain much of the corruption that we see today from almost all government institutions.

One can imagine that a group of bankers that own large countries in the G-8 must go to great lengths to prevent or squash any honest money movements that occur around the world or the populations could catch-on and see the difference honest money can make in an economy.

Awareness among the general public of monetary and banking would result from comparisons of the two types of societies. Why Only in Fantopia by James Gibb Stuart is an excellent 63 page book that explains the nature of the corruption in our monetary system by comparing two fictitious towns in their efforts to each build a bridge. One builds the bridge with 'GCM' or 'government created money,' the other builds a bridge with 'BCM' or 'banker created money.'

The existing financial mechanism is exactly like having someone rent you your own house. It can only be done at gunpoint. In the case of banking and the operation of federal governments, this is how it is done.

J. F. K. was assassinated shortly after creating executive order 11110. This order would have changed how dollars are created in the U.S.A. This executive order gave the US government the power of money creation and government self-financing that would reduce banker power and profits.

Kennedy tried to tell us about the monolithic conspiracy and asked the press to expose it to the people. He was shot shortly after and the media has remained silent. His monolithic conspiracy speech can be found on the Internet.

Re-elected several times, Larry P. MacDonald was a US congressman that was outspoken against the banks and their plan to own the planet. He was fatefully shot down over Russia in Korean Airlines flight 007. Politicians like Barry Goldwater and Senator Joseph McCarthy spoke up against the bankers and were marginalized and given bad reputations through the corporate controlled media of the time.

Lots of US presidents and powerful men have stood up to the bankers and died for it. Stonewall Jackson has "I Killed the Banks" written on his tombstone. They tried to assassinate him twice but both guns failed during one attempt.

Monetary history is very different than the coincidental view of history most people know.

Before the mid-nineteen seventies, the Canadian government used the Bank of Canada. It lent government half of its money. The Canadian national debt was less than twenty billion dollars and holding steady. Canada enjoyed a high standard of living and high productivity during this period.

Canada joined the G-7 as part of globalization and started to finance nearly 100 % of its government expenditures through private banks. Since then, our national debt has increased by three thousand percent and governments are cutting back on social services so that more and more of our tax money can go to pay the private bankers interest on the ballooning debt. The difference in wealth between the rich and poor has grown to obscene levels.

We are experiencing an accelerating private interest takeover of the government that has been occurring slowly over time to prevent people from noticing it. The elimination of the Bretton Woods agreement was used to speed up the financial industry takeover of government through the elimination of statutory gold reserves. This created floating currencies because countries money was no longer tied to gold, large loans could be created to sink certain counties into debt faster. The Bretton Woods agreement is explained in Appendix A.

The nature of our money system is such that there is never enough money in the economy to pay all of the debt owed because the debt includes interest. Interest due is really money required that has not yet been created. The interest must come from another loan that creates more money. Under the current scheme, the system is designed to blow up like a balloon and then burst. It is a mathematical certainty (not just a possibility or probability) that our economy must crash under the weight of a small group of private banks.

When a debt bubble bursts, bankers call in their loans and convert currency reserves into hard assets or "real" estate. Bankers profit when debt bubbles burst because they convert their paper money debt into real assets by foreclosing on loans for money created from nothing. Depressions are not a consequence of poor management but are planned events.

The monetary system is fundamentally corrupt. This breeds corruption at all levels. Our society is largely run by professions and they are, in turn, governed by secret societies. The public never sees the inner workings of these self governing professional societies that govern those who practice in medical, engineering, accounting and, of course, the legal profession as well as many others. We live in a society that follows the maxim rule by secrecy. The Republic Of Plato explains that secret societies exist for only one reason, which is to take something away from everyone else.

David Rockefeller was quoted at a 1991 Bilderberg Meeting as saying:

"We are grateful to The Washington Post, The New York Times, Time magazine, and other great publications whose directors have attended our meetings and respected their promise of discretion for almost forty years. It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the world if we had been subject to the bright lights of publicity during those years. But the world is now more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a world government. The super-national sovereignty of an intellectual elite and world bankers is surely preferable to the national auto-determination practiced in past centuries."

This one world government that Rockefeller talked about is the same "new world order" that George Bush described during the first Iraq invasion. Some people refer to it as Agenda 21 or Sustainable Development. The North American Union is part of Agenda 21. The North American Union used to be referred to as a Public Private Partnership and is now termed the Security and Prosperity Partnership. Sometimes it is referred to as the "North American Community" the same way as the European Union was, for some time, referred to as the "European Community." All of these things mean the same thing and are a part of the same agenda.

Agenda 21 was renamed Sustainable Development for the same reasons that the Public Private Partnership was renamed as the Security and Prosperity Partnership - the public was beginning to catch on.

Rockefeller donated eight million dollars to construct the United Nations headquarters in New York after World War II. The goal of the United Nations is to implement sustainable development worldwide.

The type of new world government system is known as a collectivist or communitarian government.

You and the product of your labour become the property of government. Individual rights or freedoms have no place in this new world order. This is socialism and it's being adopted because it doesn't work for the masses of people (it only works for the people at the very top of the power structure).

The think tank report called "The Report from Iron Mountain" can be found using a Google search. It is a very important (and short) document to read to gain an understanding of how much power these people have over us. It was published by a rogue member of a think tank that was then written off as a joke by the establishment but was later authenticated by J.K. Galbraith in his book The Creature from Jekyll Island (Griffin). It reached the #6 on the New York Times best seller list during the 1960's.

Events that have occurred since The Report from Iron Mountain was published show this piece to be obviously true and therefore not the random ramblings of a hoaxster.

The Secretive North American Union

*"I am concerned for the security of our great nation; not so much because of any threat from without,
but because of the insidious forces working from within."
-- General Douglas MacArthur*

The secretive North American Union is a real agenda that is almost complete. It is a massive fraud being perpetrated on the populations of Canada, the USA and Mexico. It has often been called a "public-private" partnership. The television will tell you that it doesn't exist but you can go to www.SPP.gov to learn about the soft, fluffy and cute side of all of this. To see and understand the soft underbelly and the teeth of the North American Union, see the Canadian Action Party website where it is all explained. The Canadian Action Party website also has a great cartoon that explains The Bank of Canada.

Fascism occurs as a result of a "public-private partnership" according to Mussolini. Fascism occurs when corporations and governments unite. This is exactly what is happening today in secret. Laws (including your right to habeas-corpus and double jeopardy protection) are being rewritten secretly in stealth with corporations and governments working together and led by the banks. The new laws that will be put into place as a result of the North American Union are known as "communitarian laws."

Communitarian law is a type of administrative law. Many lawyers over the past 20 years have made administrative law their specialty. Communitarian law is also known as "The Third Way" or the "New Soviet" and it is a way of centralizing an unaccountable government. In Agenda 21 or Sustainable Development this law is termed "social justice" which translates to "soviet".

The Canadian Council of Chief Executives did a report called "New Frontiers" that advises governments that this public private partnership must be done by stealth.

The North American Union is not the simple joining of USA, Canada and Mexico into a grand republic. The N. A. U. is the exact opposite of a republic because it is a complete sell out of all public assets to the financial powers. It could be coined a "Reprivate" but is often referred to as a feudal system, which is, in fact, what it is. It is the creation of a whole new society that absorbs Canada, the USA and Mexico and has no regard for individual rights or freedoms. Private prisons and private police forces with stock owned by judges will be the way of the North American Union.

In the 1990's, U.S. president Bill Clinton rewrote the laws to allow media amalgamation - something necessary to keep the media quiet about the formation of the North American Union.

A secret operation of the CIA that started in the 50's and is now known as operation mockingbird was an operation to control the big mainstream media outlets. The smaller media outlets would simply repeat the same news for fear of being discredited. Most of the corporate media now sings the same tune on any story. We are told what to think by excessive commentary and repetition in the media.

This march towards the N.A.U. is part of a much larger agenda. Corporations that own the media will also own the North American Union. With the exception of Lou Dobbs, that's why the corporate/mainstream media prostitutes never ever talk about it. People call CNN the "Controlled News Network" for a reason. Lou is just a pressure valve to make us think someone is doing something about all of this. Keith Oberman is another pressure valve to vent anger on the Conservatives and steer voters toward the Democrats. Both parties support Sustainable Development policy, as do the four parties in Canada.

Socialism was created by the big banks as a method of running countries like Germany, China and Russia in the past. The Wall St. financier I.G. Farben put Hitler into power. The Russian Revolution was created by our banks so they could take control of the creation of Russian currency. People from the East Germany secret police (Stasi) now work for the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. Socialism is coming here incrementally. Many great books explain the truth about banking such as The Creature from Jekyll Island, Web Of Debt by Ellen Brown as well as a new book coming about by Richard C. Cook.

There are a large number of concentration camps that have been built or are being built on this continent to facilitate a huge population reduction that always goes with a transformation to fascism. Laws, such as the Patriot Act, The Military Commissions Act and equivalent laws passed in Canada, very closely duplicate laws passed in pre-Nazi Germany in the 1930's.

Various legal scholars discuss these laws and their parallels to the laws of Nazi Germany on the website gunsandbutter.net or the KPFA radio site. See July 4 & 11, 2007 shows. Naomi Wolf has a new book called "The End of America: Letter of Warning to a Young Patriot". She does a 45 minute speech on You-Tube that outlines the 10 steps that leaders always take to close down an open society. She compares the USA to Germany in her 45 minute free You-Tube talk.

People forget their history and the true powers of the world count on this.

Our Myth Based Society or Plato's Cave

“In March, 1915, the J.P. Morgan interests, the steel, shipbuilding and powder interest, and their subsidiary organizations, got together 12 men high up in the newspaper world and employed them to select the most influential newspapers in the United States and a sufficient number of them to control generally the policy of the daily press....They found it was only necessary to purchase the control of 25 of the greatest papers.

An agreement was reached; the policy of the papers was bought, to be paid for by the month; an editor was furnished for each paper to properly supervise and edit information regarding the questions of preparedness, militarism, financial policies, and other things of national and international nature considered vital to the interests of the purchasers.” -- U.S. Congressman Oscar Callaway, 1917

We live in a myth based society. People are led to believe that there isn't enough oil to go around. Oil spigots remain turned off in Iraq to maintain high oil prices. There is enough oil in Alberta alone for many years (search for Lindsay Williams on the internet).

Oil is why most people think we fight wars and that the mainstream news is hiding this fact from us. Peel back the layers of the onion.

If the peak oil myth was really true, we would be driving electric cars but somehow the electric car disappeared and no one knows why (see the video "Who Killed the Electric Car" available at mainstream video outlets).

Many people still have not figured out that 9/11 was an inside job because they cannot imagine that government would do this to us and they do not investigate the facts for themselves. There are plenty of examples of governments using terrorism to start wars found in historical documents. The evidence for 9/11 being an inside job is overwhelming and the official story has been completely discredited as being impossible on web sites such as 911Research.org and Architects & Engineers for 9/11 Truth (ae911truth.org), and Patriots Question 911 provide ample evidence presented by many experts and high ranking members of the US and foreign military. Its not likely you will see these brave people interviewed on mainstream media on the subject of the 9/11 attacks.

The Global warming myth is explained in documentaries such as "The Great Global Warming Swindle" (BBC & free viewing on Google Video) and "Global Warming or Global Governance" by Michael Coffman (available online & free viewing on Google Video). References for these videos are in Appendix B.

Al Gore's video, An Inconvenient Truth, proves only one thing: the truth is very inconvenient for Al Gore. He is a politician so this really shouldn't surprise anyone. His movie is primarily based on two things and they both turn out to be lies. Gore shows us some graphs that illustrate CO2 content in the atmosphere that closely correlates with temperature as a function of time over several hundred years. These graphs prove that high temperatures are caused by CO2 according to Gore. These two graphs are shown spaced apart in the presentation because if they are superimposed then it can easily be seen by anyone that CO2 is created from the high temperatures and lags high temperatures by about 800 years. In other words, the CO2 content in the atmosphere does not cause high temperatures according to the data shown. High temperatures cause the increase in CO2. This shows that the "carbon tax" to reduce greenhouse gases is a scam.

The mystical "hockey stick" curve derived from a computer model is seriously flawed because it gives the same "hockey stick" graph shape independent of the data you put into it.

The British Supreme Court ruled that schools that show “An Inconvenient Truth” should also show the movie “The Great Global Warming Swindle” because Gore’s movie is too political in motivation.

Greenland was called Greenland for a reason - it used to be green when the earth was warmer (no body died). Mars is not heating up because people drive S.U.V.'s on earth. Global warming is caused by the sun and by activity in the universe that effects the formation of clouds in the atmosphere. Global warming provides a reason to increase taxes and lower standards of living as well as increase the number of laws so that people can be controlled under the law in a way sometimes coined as "death by a thousand cuts."

The facts show that Al Gore is using only two scientific facts to prove his case on Global Warming. Both of these scientific "facts" are not as presented and presented with chicanery and sleight of hand. Those that have faith in the Global Warming myth have only faith to back up their convictions. There is no scientific evidence to base this belief on, which is why the movie "An Inconvenient Truth" is so full of deceptions.

Oil companies have greater public acceptance of high prices and multiple well spigots are turned off due to this global warming myth to keep prices high and expenses low.

The fake environmental movement has the purpose of removing property rights through "death by 1000 cuts" while the fake terrorism is used to take away your civil rights to prepare us for communitarian law and corporate fascism.

Over population is another myth as well. In Canada, we must bring in foreigners to maintain a population growth. Advances in technology and farming have increased the efficiency land usage by several times over. There is no reason not to believe that increases in technology and science know-how will continue to allow a higher population to be supported. (See R. Buckminster Fuller's "Critical Path").

Increases in technology and a growing healthy population can change an information paradigm and empires can be won and lost. The printing press brought humanity out of the Dark Ages just as the internet can change the existing paradigm.

Our bankers want to own the earth and they maintain many myths to collect taxes and start wars for perceived limited resources to conglomerate wealth and power. The entire economy of the world is based on "limited resources." They must keep the myth going as "sustainability" is just a word they use but don't ever attempt to perform....

"Where there's chaos there's cash." Unknown

The Hegelian Dialectic

"The people can always be brought to the bidding of their leaders. That is easy. All you have to do is tell them they are being attacked and denounce the peacemakers for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same in any country"

-- Nazi Reich Marshall Hermann Goering at the Nuremberg Trials

"We know in the not-too-distant future, a half dozen corporations are going to control the media. We took this step (merger) to ensure we were one of them"

--Time Warner spokesperson.

The Hegelian dialectic is a philosophical way of managing a civilization. In simple terms, this breaks down to problem-reaction-solution. Problems are created & reactions bring predetermined solutions. The terrorist attacks of 9/11 created the need for war. The wars brought increased profits for the big defense contractors and the banks that created the money for it all. The interest payments for this imaginary money loan will be paid through income-taxes providing huge profits for the banks.

The first war in Iraq brought the Federal Reserve to Iraq as the IMF and World Bank.

In Yugoslavia, Milosovich had national banks. These were banks owned by the government and its people and could lend governments the money at only the cost of administering the loans. National debt doesn't balloon under these circumstances and taxes remain low because debt does not carry the high burden of interest.

In Haiti, Aristide had an over ninety percent approval rating, but he was overthrown by Canada and the USA they did so to put a corrupt fascist dictator and war criminal in place, so that Haiti could have a "democracy" like us.

The reality of war is that our governments foment wars against countries whose own governments are in control of the country and its money supply. Wars are fought with the ultimate purpose of getting people to pay income tax or pay more income tax. The late Smedley Butler has a published essay that can be found on the Internet called "War Is A Racket." Butler (The Fighting Quaker) was a Major General in the U.S. Marine Corps. At the time of his death, he was the most decorated Marine in U.S. history.

The 9/11 commission report was written by Philip Zelikow. Zelikow is an expert at maintaining public myths. This is evidenced by his earlier admission on Wikipedia that has since been removed. He is not an engineer or forensic expert. The F.A.A. and Fire Marshal were restricted from partaking in the investigation. Most of the evidence was illegally destroyed.

The report is not an investigation. It's a report. The FEMA and NIST reports do not actually say what people are led to believe by the mainstream/corporate media. The FEMA report cites evidence of high energy explosives used to bring down Building 7 of the World Trade Center that day. Many people do not even know that Building 7 also came down that day. It looked too much like a conventional controlled demolition to be shown more than once or twice on TV early after the event before being censored from the corporate version of events.

Building 7 collapsed approximately one half hour after it was reported by the BBC as having collapsed because someone got their script wrong.

The London 7/7 subway bombings, the Oklahoma City bombing, the World Trade Center bombing in 1993 as well as their complete destruction in 2001 all share one thing in common: they all had police and military authorities conducting exercises of the exact same thing happening at the exact same time. This is an incredible coincidence that can be verified through mainstream sources as well as one that cannot be ignored. Mainstream media will not inform listeners of this incredibly enlightening and incriminating fact.

The real rulers of society benefited from the execution of the attacks on 9/11. 9/11 created an excuse to go to war. Enormous profits are obtained from the military industrial complex; the plundered oil and the profits for the construction and maintenance of a police state at home. This and the increased borrowing to finance it all are the motivations for 9/11. The infrastructure of a country being attacked is destroyed during war so that the new banks of the conquered country can refinance the reconstruction see Confessions Of An Economic Hit Man by John Perkins.

It is a river of money that flows toward an orgy of profane concentrations of wealth and power.

A police state is quickly developing around us. In the USA, the size of the police force has quadrupled since Clinton was elected into power. People are afraid of the police because the police are afraid of us due to their own internal propaganda. "You never know who could be a terrorist. It could be anyone."

In Looney Tunes cartoons there is a cartoon that shows Bugs Bunny changing hats through various occupations and their expected demeanor. The cartoon shows the "wascally wabbit" personality change as his outward appearance changes and it's a well known principle of human psychology. The police dress in black with bullet proof vests and begin to act more like a military force and separate themselves from the citizenry. This is required as our rights get taken away.

A threat to the police or public would be stupid and likely make the establishment very happy. The establishment would generate more fear and use it to increase funding for a bigger police state. It would save banker controlled governments the trouble of engineering the terrorist attacks themselves. A police state will destroy this culture and economy and pave the way to a new fascist dictatorship that is being created as the North American Union.

The threat of terrorism is the stated reason for expanded police forces. Police have crowd control weapons like microwave guns and high frequency sonic weapons. These are not weapons to fight terrorists. These weapons are for repression of the public voice, for use when the public wakes up to what is really happening.

Our countries are being pauperized through the export of manufacturing capability. A country cannot generate wealth by serving one another coffee; real wealth must be generated through industry. After machine tools have been sold offshore it takes a very long time to rebuild industrial wealth.

Soon the door will close on the democratic possibilities of preventing this. This is why they are putting cameras into place and creating the police state (the TTC just installed 12,000 cameras). The police state will be in place to protect the oligarchy from the people once the people wake up and figure out what is really going on. In time, there will be no turning back.

The R.F.I.D. Chip and the End Game

“The technotronic era involves the gradual appearance of a more controlled society. Such a society would be dominated by an elite, unrestrained by traditional values. [...] [T]he capacity to assert social and political control over the individual will vastly increase. It will soon be possible to assert almost continuous surveillance over every citizen and to maintain up-to-date, complete files, containing even most personal information about the health or personal behavior of the citizen in addition to more customary data. These files will be subject to instantaneous retrieval by the authorities.”-- Zbigniew Brzezinski

The bible talks about end times but we are on the dawn of a new age and God only helps those who help themselves. Don't passively wait for the man from Hollywood to ride in on a white horse and save you.

Everything about our society is brought to us by think tanks and focus groups that advise and shape governments. The corporate controlled T.V., rock and roll, the education-system, racial tensions and the breakup of families have all been planned to separate us and/or to dumb us down. We are not free. We live in a carefully constructed matrix created by the very few who print the money.

Most of us are not the ones that print the money or have the family bloodlines of the folks that print the money so most of us will get chipped. This R.F.I.D. chip is the demarcation point for the loss of freedom once the majority of the population has it. Once you have an implanted chip, you become property and you will have no power because the chip will be needed to buy and sell. It can be shut off at any time.

Some people will get the K. M. A. (Kiss My Ass) chip. For people that get a K.M.A. chip, they will understand that the privileges will, of course, only be implicit and ultimately short term.

Very few people will not have the chip. Will you be one of them?

Aarron Russo gave an account of a conversation he had with Nick Rockefeller where Rockefeller explains that getting everyone implanted with the R.F.I.D. chip is the goal of the big banks. Once the central powers control everyone's ability to buy and sell then complete control of the world is in their hands.

When everyone has the R.F.I.D. chip, it will not only put a small number of people in charge of the planet but they will also direct human development for all time. There will be absolutely no turning back and they will own every single person on the planet.

Some History & Literature

From O.J. Simpson to Britney Spears, the media has been working very hard to distract you from thinking about things that preserve your wealth & freedom.

Advanced technology that has been a product of our society has brought about the need for a smaller population to serve the oligarchy as well as to reduce the risk that awareness and understanding of the matrix will reach a larger population.

A shepherd feeds and cares for his sheep for as long as it is profitable to do so. After a point, they are fleeced or led to the slaughter. We have been fleeced long enough and it's getting close to the time for the slaughter. This change has to be grass roots. No politician can stand up to the bankers without a population that understands this and is behind the movement. It needs roots to hold firm.

The power is still in the hands of the electorate. This is why the Pentagon spends billions of dollars each year to maintain public myths. Anti-globalization activists need to change their mind about giving up, re-awaken to the cause and recognize the advantage the Internet and digital mediums give us in delivering this message.

The Wonderful Wizard of Oz is an old story written in the year 1900 for children. It is, in reality, an allegorical story about the banks as believed by many scholars. Dorothy walks down a yellow brick road with three characters looking for heart, courage and a brain after a tornado (allegory for a depression) ruins her home in Kansas. At the end of the book, Dorothy finds the little man behind the curtain pulling all the levers and controlling things like tornados. This man represents the small group of private families that print most of the world's money and control politics. For our countries and civilizations to be free, the man behind the curtain must be exposed to all.

For this, people will have to develop courage, heart and the brains to wake up to what is happening. A world where governments could print money to lend to themselves instead of depending on private interests would lead to a much different and far better world than the one we live in today.

There would be fewer wars, income-taxes would disappear, inflation would be managed to benefit the people, work weeks would be shorter because we would be able to ultimately use automation and technology to reduce work burden rather than just use it to make the richest people even richer. Education would be better as it was before private banks took over. Medicine would start to work for people instead of the pharmaceutical companies. Doctors would all be required to take the Hippocratic Oath again. The danger of secret societies would be widely understood. Culture would develop for people and not be lead by the thinkers of secret organizations that clandestinely work for the banks.

Abraham Lincoln once said: "The privilege of creating and issuing money is not only the supreme prerogative of Government, but it is the Government's greatest creative opportunity."

Fortunately there is still time. Please pass this around, post it on the internet or even sell it. Make as many copies as you wish. This message or similar messages must reach a large segment of the population quickly if we are to stop what is happening.

Appendix A: How Banks Create Money

Many people study economics in school and learn of a trick that banks play to loan more money than they actually have. Fractional-reserve banking allows banks to actually create money from nothing. In school, people learn that, in a fractional-reserve banking system with a reserve ratio of 9:1, the bank can lend out $90.00 of every $100.00 deposit. This is absolutely true and really doesn't sound all that bad. In fact, it is a good thing.

If a bank receives a deposit of $100.00 it can lend out $90.00. That $90.00 gets spent by someone and ends up back in a bank in another account very quickly. The new $90.00 deposit creates $81.00 that the bank can lend out. This $81.00, shortly after being lent out, returns to a bank to create a deposit for someone else and, from this, $72.90 can be lent out...and so on.

Continuing this pattern, we see that the banks have created  $$90.00 + $81.00 + $72.90 + \dots$  which adds up to approximately nine times the actual deposit of $100.00. From the $100.00 deposit, the banks create $900.00 to lend out. This is where you can nail anyone from an economics background when they start explaining that banks can only lend out 90 % of what they have on deposit - they can't create money from nothing. In fact, both things mean the same thing.

If banks were required have all the money they lent out, interest rates would be 30% and no one would be able to afford to buy property. The current version of fractional-reserve banking has bankers in control of government. Therefore, they do not even have to tell governments how much money they create and the reserve ratios are around 300:1 rather than the 9:1 ratio depicted in this earlier example.

The process for which banks get money to lend governments is much simpler. The banker controlled government just creates as many bonds as they want and the banks agree to buy them and collect interest on them. Bonds are also sometimes sold to the public to generate funding.

The banks used to have to have 10 % of their money on loan in gold rather than paper currency. This put a cap on the amount of money banks could create to lend. The Bretton Woods agreement kept all exchange rates constant due to the use of the gold standard. This gold standard was eliminated and this expanded the banks ability to create money. Countries could be destroyed with large loans given to corrupt governments leading to the looting of the country by financial powers. John Perkins in Confessions of An Economic Hit Man explains this process from the point of view of a banker that came to understand this process. Catherine Austin Fitts is another high level banker that became aware of how the banks manage societies. Her website is Solaris.com and she is an avid monetary reformer and does many free talks that can be found from her site and on the internet. She is one of the most clear and eloquent speakers on this topic.

In the new non-gold system, paper money forms a reserve for electronic money in circulation and created by the banks for loans. Who actually cashes a paycheque anymore ? Most of the money in circulation is electronic money and created by banks. The paper money in circulation in Canada was created by the Bank Of Canada, a national bank. The bank of Canada could create all of the money and lend it to government in Canada, but our government and country is owned by private banks, we must therefore borrow money from private banks to finance most of our government expenditures and pay them the required rate of interest.

The banking fraud occurs when banks create money to lend to government instead of allowing governments to create their own money. This has banks collecting massive amounts of profit from interest with no risk, effort or expenditure. The money is guaranteed by the public and the government, not the banks.
